MANY HORSES AT WINDSOR

NO LACK OF RACING MATERIAL FOR MEETING THAT WILL OPEN TO-MORROW.

Practically All of the Stables That Have Been Following Canadian Circuit Quartered at Track Near Detroit—Many from Kentucky, Too.

Detroit, Mich., July 14.—Horses are continuing to gather in large numbers for Wednesday's opening of the Windsor Jockey Club's meeting. It is certain that there will be no lack of good racing material to fill the cards during each and every day of the meeting, which is to open on Wednesday and continue for seven days.

Practically all of the better horses that raced at Fort Erie have already arrived. Kentucky has also contributed many.

Among the horses that have arrived at the Windsor track from Fort Erie are those owned by Robert Davies, of Toronto. There are sixteen in the Davies' stable, including the four Frontier Handicap eligibles, Calgary, Plate Glass, First Sight and Liberty Hall. Others in the string embrace the good two-year-old, Southern Maid, Perpetual Amusement, The Usher, Recall, Heart's Delight, Knights Duffer, Spring Mail, Moving Picture, Fountain Fay, Gold Bud and Meter.

Amos Turner's stable came from Fort Erie, minus the great Horton. This son of McGee, unbeaten this season, was taken sick at Fort Erie, and left behind. Kloburne, the other Turner candidate for the Frontier, looks fit, as do the other winners in the stable, Gills and Critico.

J. W. Burttell's string, numbering seven, trooped into the track, looking well. In this stable are Flabbergast, a Frontier candidate; Spellbound, Oasple, Question Mark and Pat Rutledge.

H. Giddings' stable numbered seven. In the lot were Hearts of Oak, this year's King's Plate winner, that fast two-year-old, Beehive, Oudramon, Oudramida and Widow Wise.

W. Shields' string of fourteen was also among the arrivals. This includes Elwah, Chuekles, Big Dipper and the Edgewood nominees, John P. Nixon and Veilchen, owned by E. J. McGraw.

Al G. Weston came with horses owned by Capt. W. F. Presgrave and R. T. Wilson, there being twelve in the string.

J. C. Gallagher arrived with eleven, including Rash, Sun Queen and Rags.

W. M. Wallace has eight head here, the best being Duquesne and The Widow Moon, the latter a Frontier Handicap candidate.

W. P. Fine, with two horses, E. J. O'Connell with three and Earl Linnell, with one, are among others who arrived.

Jockey Joe Kederis is one of the latest of the jockey arrivals.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Patronage of the Butte meeting is breaking all records.

Vancouver is having its most prosperous meeting. Twenty pari-mutuels machines are in daily use.

El Palomar, The Cinder, La Valetta and Headford, the property of C. W. Clark, of California, have been turned out at the Kingston Farm, near Lexington, Ky. They will be left in charge of Miss Baingard until fall when they will be taken up for training.

Harry Giddings has disposed of the two-year-old Banjo, a bay colt by David Garrick—Cuba Free, to Ross Gooderham. The price was $300. The two-year-old Half Law, by Bassettlaw—Better Half, has been turned out at the Giddings farm, having been affected with an ailment known as the scratches.

Trainers and jockeys participating in the King Edward Park meeting are requested to have a Canadian Racing Association license. This is the first time that such a requirement has been in vogue on the half-mile circuit in Canada, and Joseph A. Murphy, who is presiding over the meeting, is responsible for the innovation.

Only about 1,000 persons took advantage of the Metropolitan Jockey Club's offer to race free in the infield at Belmont Park on Saturday. All of these did not comport themselves properly and special officers escorted two men out of the enclosure just before the last race started, on account of infractions of the betting regulations.

James Johnston, who has been training the J. O. Talbott horses for the past year, has severed his connection with that establishment and will take a small string of his own to Saratoga to race. Johnston has been quite successful with the Talbott horses since taking charge, and he and the owner parted company on friendly terms.

BROODMARES AND FOALS CHANGE HANDS.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—Mrs. D. Meschendorf, of Waldeck Stud, has sold to Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield the following broodmares and foals:

Desayuno, by Kendal, out of Snack, by Kisher, and brown filly, by Garry Hermann.

Grand Prize, by Kingston, out of Desayuno, and bay colt by Garry Hermann.

Dixie Hart, by Peep O'Day, out of Voltario, by Voltorno, and chestnut filly by Garry Hermann.

Hunger, by Hanover, out of La Juive, by Mortimer.

It is said that Miss Daingerfield purchased this stock for a party new to the thoroughbred world. They have been transferred to Kingston Farm.

GIDEON AND DALY BARN IS BURNED.

Red Bank, N. J., July 14.—The large racing stable and barn on the old Gideon and Daly track farm near here was destroyed by fire last week. The fire was caused by an exploding automobile, which was left running in the barn. The damage is $10,000. The place was sold a few days ago for $65,000. A number of Arabian horses were rescued with several valuable racehorses.

David Gideon and James Daly, two well-known horsemen, purchased the place when that locality was the scene of one of the best racing in the United States. In the burned barn many of the most famous racehorses in this country were bred.

FIRE DESTROYS HARLEM BARN.

Three 100-foot frame barns, comprising part of the buildings of the Harlem race track property in Forest Park, were destroyed by fire started by a bolt of lightning early Monday morning. For a time the grandstand was threatened, but rain kept the flames in check until the arrival of firemen from Chicago, Oak Park and Forest Park. The barns and 200 feet of fencing were burned. The fence was struck by lightning at 12:30 a. m. The fire was discovered by J. McCann, the night watchman.

CLOSE STRUGGLE FOR SADDLE HONORS.

J. Wilson and Buxton Tied for First Place in the American Jockey List of 1913.

With half the year spent the contest among American jockeys for the saddle honors of 1913 has become decidedly close and interesting. The beginning of this week finds J. Wilson and Buxton tied for first place, with seventy-two winning mounts each. Then comes Loftus, with sixty-four, while Burlingame and Kederis follow closely with sixty-two and sixty respectively. Others are not far behind and it is almost anybody's race, so to speak. The record of the thirty leaders from January 1, to and including the racing of Saturday last, is as follows:

RULED OFF AT VANCOUVER.

Jockey Warren and Owner E. L. Kripp Banished as Result of a Transaction at Minoru Park.

Vancouver, B. C., July 14.—Jockey Grover Warren and Owner E. L. Kripp are barred from the turf for life as a result of a ruling of the stewards of the British Columbia Thoroughbred Association meeting now in progress at Minoru Park. Warren was accused of having offered $100 to Jockey J. Murphy, who had the mount on Old Goliath in a recent two-year-old race to pull his mount for La Estrella. Murphy informed the judges and Warren, when confronted with the evidence, confessed and implicated Kripp who, he said, had given him the money to pay Murphy. Kripp is the owner of the crack three-year-old Orin Kripp and other horses. Warren has been in trouble before. Last year he was suspended by Judge Hopper for an unsatisfactory ride on Deerfoot at Butte.

STEELE'S DAY TO SHINE

KENTUCKY JOCKEY PILOTS FOUR WINNERS AT MINERAL SPRINGS TRACK.

Is Placed with Remaining Two Mounts—Purses Increased and Additional Train Accommodations Provided to Carry Patrons to Course.

The chief feature of the racing at Mineral Springs Park yesterday was Jockey Steele. He rode four winners, one second and one third. The two horses on which he was beaten were the 4 to 5 favorites, Cordova and Old Trump. His winning mounts were on Eva Tanguay, Hermuda, Billie Baker and Missie. In the two races in which he failed to score Vandusen was astride the winners, so the two boys monopolized the card of the day. Both rode energetically and have a steady following.

The heavy rain of the night previous slowed the track somewhat, but not seriously. It is peculiar soil and disposes of water readily. On top it was dry with wet spots here and there, of course, damp underneath. Not a bit of mud was in sight and in effect the horses almost ran in as fast average time as on those days when the track was at its best.

It was the best Monday's attendance in the history of the track and one bent on business. Recognizing that the attendance is growing and likely to become heavy, a three train service begins to-day, trains leaving the La Salle street depot at 12:20 p. m., 12:45 p. m. and 1:20 p. m. The last train will only make one stop in going to the track, Englewood being the station thus favored.

The first race was well contested to midway of the stretch, but here Eva Tanguay moved away from the others and won from Tony W. with ease. Cordova was always at odds-on for the second race, but Ike Cohen, which had been running well in his previous starts at the meeting, took her measure without trouble, albeit he was always comfortably placed in the race, while she was not. Old Trump was at 4 to 5 for the third race, but the grey filly, Tempest, shot out on the last turn into a long lead and easily kept it to the end, the favorite turning up in second place. The race was giving away weight and probably was favored by the going. Trojan Belle was a receding favorite for the fourth race, but Hermuda was heavily backed and under a good rider proved the right one. The favorite finishing in the rear division. Billie Baker and Missie won the fifth and sixth races without trouble, the latter winning off by herself.

The horsemen were agreeably surprised over the announcement before yesterday's racing that all purses for the remainder of the meeting would be increased to $250. This volunteer raise of $50 to each purse was unexpected. It was also announced that, beginning with the next meeting of fifteen days' racing, no purse would be of less than $300 value, and that if a better class of horses engaged in the racing, handicaps of $500 would be a likely prospect. The backers of the Porter project feel sanguine that the sport can be placed on a firm basis and are planning extensive improvements to be completed for the next meeting. The improvements include the flooring of the space under the grandstand, a brick promenade in front of the grandstand, and the building of additional stables.

Jockey Taplin was forced to discontinue riding, after dismounting from Louie Grace in the third race, on account of his old hip ailment. This is Taplin's last season in the saddle, as he contemplates retiring and going into business in San Francisco.

Cordova came out of her race in such bad condition that it would have prevented her from being a serious factor in the fourth race originally carded for to-day, and the management deemed it advisable to declare the race off and substitute another.

MUTUELS A SUCCESS AT TROTS.

Chicheston, O., July 14.—The pari-mutuel experts who went from Latonia to operate the machines at the North Randall Grand Circuit meeting, have returned. Ten machines were put on at the meeting, with no bookmakers operating this year. On the first day about $11,000 was bet; on the second day the take doubled, and on the third day it was three times the amount wagered on the first day. The machines were still new to the people of Cleveland, and it took them some time to get acquainted with their workings. Auction pools were also sold. On several occasions the place price against certain horses was more than the winning price, and this caused a great deal of discussion. It took the mutuel operators a long time to explain how this happened.

Everybody who bet in the machines was well pleased, and it probably will only be a matter of a short time until they are established throughout the entire Grand Circuit. Gene Elrod and Buck Burgess stayed after the others to straighten out the matters. Jack Campbell went from Cleveland to Bellaire, Mich., where he will stay for a month.

MONTANA STATE FAIR STAKE.

Butte, Mont., July 14.—The stake blanks for the Montana State Fair meeting are out.

There will be no purse of less value than $200, and the various stake events are as follows:

Treasure State Handicap; guaranteed value $500; for three-year-olds and up; five furlongs. To be run Monday, Sept. 22.

Wonderland Handicap; guaranteed value $500; for two-year-olds; five furlongs. To be run Tuesday, Sept. 23.

State Fair Derby; guaranteed value $1,500; for three-year-olds and up; one and a quarter miles. To be run Wednesday, Sept. 24.

Governor's Day Selling Stakes; guaranteed value $500; all ages; seven furlongs. To be run Thursday, Sept. 25.

Union League Handicap; guaranteed value $500; all ages; six furlongs. To be run Friday, Sept. 26.

Montana Handicap; guaranteed value $1,000; for three-year-olds and up; one and an eighth miles. To be run Saturday, Sept. 27.

MIMOROSO REGAINS HIS FORM.

Butte, Mont., July 14.—Before one of the best crowds of the meeting, Mimoroso, running to his best form, was returned winner of the feature race today. The favorite, Goldfinch, none too well ridden by Silaf, ran most disappointingly and failed to show any of her speed.

Jockeys Burlingame and Panley carried off the riding honors of the afternoon, each scoring twice.
